SUPPEME COURT-SPECIAL TERM. Declaion in the Laing Will Case. Before Judge Barnard.

H. Rainey et al. vs. William L. Laing et al.— About two months ago this suit was tried before a About two months ago this suit was tried before a special term of this court. It was brought by the executors of the will of James B. Laing, who died at Kinderhook on the 25th of October, 1888, to obtain a judicial construction of the will. He left property to the amount of $50,000, being entirely personal property. His only surviving relatives were a brother and sister and a nephew. After bequeathing als collection of miberals to Rutgers College, he left $20,000 to be placed out at interest, and from its income directed $500 to be paid both to his brother and sister. The balance of the income of this $20,000, and, ultimately the principal, was to go to the General Synod of the keformed Duich Church. The residue of his estate was also left to the Synod, and was to constante a fand to be known as the "Laing Fund." This fund was to be used for the education of "pious indigent young men preparing for the ministry of that church." By the act under which the Synod should hold property the yearly locome of which exceeds $10,000. The suit was brought by the next of kin, who dispute all the bequests except that of the minerals to Rutgers Colliege.

Judge Barnard now renders an opinion in the case, and holds, that as the Synod of the Dutch Church now has property exceeding the limit allowed by its act of incorporation it cannot hold this property; its corporate purposes not meluding such a trust as the synod of the patent Church now has property exceeding the limit allowed by its act of incorporation it cannot hold this property; its corporate purposes not meluding such a trust as the regard to the pious indigent young men he says there are no such characters in the eye of the law. That the trust directs a perpetuity and accumulations which are forbidden by law, and that altogether the trusts are to vague. He finally decides that the property must go under the statute of distributions. pecial term of this court. It was brought by the COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS. A Gang of Burglars Sent to the State Prison Before Recorder Hackett.

In this court yesterday Henry Searmore, who was indicted for burglary in the second degree, pleaded guilty to the third grade of that offence. On the 19th of May he entered the dwelling house of nee dotars in money. He was sent to the Penitentary for three years, being under twenty-one years of age.

ALEGED MURDER OF A NOTOBIOUS CHARACTER.
Shortly before the adjournment Mr. William F. Howe made a motion for bail in the case of Philip Cooney. About two months since, said Mr. Howe, a man by the name of David O'Day, known in New York to be a notorious rowdy, met his death in a saloon at the hands of Philip Cooney, who surrendered himself at once to Captain Jourdan. A coroner's inquest was held, the result of which was that the jury came to his death by a stab wound inflicted by the accused, and that he was perfectly justifiable. The New York Herald had an editorial upon it, stating that the verdet was a just one. But since then it appears that the friends of O'Day have gone before the Grand Jury and they have preferred an indictment against him for murder in the first degree. Cooney has never left the city, and hearing of the indictment to-day again surrendered himself to the Superintendent of Police. I ask that your Honor will look at the papers and fix the amount of bath.

The Recorder said that while he had perfect confidence in the shatement of Mr. Howe, the charge being that of murder, he would like to have the facts put in the shape of an affidavit. This Mr. Howe promised to do to-morrow.

BROOKLYN COURTS.

UNITED STATES COMMISSIONERS' COURT. The Perils of Purchasing "Pools."

Before Commissioner Jones. Daniel Scott, of No. 40 Bridge street, swore out a warrant yesterday against T. B. Johnson, of No. 246 East Forty-ninth street, New York, charging him with having passed a counterfeit United States Treasury note of the denomination of fifty dollars. The accused is a "pool" seller, and on the 19th of May the complainant, as claimed, purchased a successful pool from him at a race at the Fashion Course, receiving this counterfeit bill in payment of the pool. The warrant was delivered to a deputy marshal to execute.

SUPREME COURT-SPECIAL TERM.

The Prospect Park Bonds-Mendamus Agninst the Mayor. Before Judge Pratt.

The last Legislature passed an act authorizing the Park Commissioners to expend $500,000 each year to complete the work on Prospect Park, and last month the Commissioners directed the superintendent to the Commissioners directed the superintendent to proceed with the work, and the president and secretary to draw on the city treasury for $100,000, Bonds to the amount of $75,000 were issued by the Comptroller, $35,000 of which were signed by the Mayor, who has refused to sign the belance.

Yesterday Mr. John Taylor, counsel for the Commissioners, made an application to Judge Pratt for a mandamus compelling the Mayor to sign these bonds. Judge Pratt thereupon issued an order directing the Mayor to show cause, on Saturday next, why a permanent mandrinus compeding him to sign the bonds shall not be granted to the Commissioners.

The Parade Ground Trouble. The Park Commissioners yesterday gave bonds in the sum of $25,000 to indemnify the county for all damage which might occur through the visits of camage which might occur through the visits of the New York militia to the Prospect Park Parade Ground. The readers of the Herald will remember that Judge Pratt issued a mandamus restraining the rark Commissioners from allowing the New York militia the use of the parade ground, but suose-quently granted a stay of proceedings, peading ap-peat, on condition foat the Commissioners would give bonds in the amount named. Messrs. J. S. T. Stranahan, Isaac Van Abylen and Ed Fiske were the bondsmeg
